Nursing Inquiry

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
Judith Parker

EDITOR
Sioban Nelson

Volume 12
2005

Blackwell
Publishing

Contents

Issue 1, March 2005

EDITORIAL

1 Staffing, ratios and skill mix — is there an Australian story?
Sioban Nelson

FEATURE ARTICLES

2 Rethinking theatre in modern operating rooms
Robin Riley and Elizabeth Manias

10 The anatomy of a forbidden desire: men, penetration and semen exchange
Dave Holmes and Dan Warner

21 Regulating hospital use: length of stay, beds and whiteboards
Marie Heartfield

27 Nursing scholars appropriating new methods: the use of discourse analysis in scholarly nursing journals 1996–2003
Niels Buus

34 Dwelling with stories that haunt us: building a meaningful nursing practice
Judy Rashotte

43 Recovery from depression: a discourse analysis of interpersonal psychotherapy
Marie Crowe and Sue Luty

51 Sustaining self: moving beyond the unexpected realities of teaching in practice
Brenda I. Paton

60 BOOK REVIEWS

Issue 2, June 2005

EDITORIAL

65 Nursing identity and difference
Judith Parker

FEATURE ARTICLES

66 Modes of rationality in nursing documentation: biology, biography and the 'voice of nursing'
Abbey Hyde, Margaret (P) Treacy, P. Anne Scott, Michelle Butler, Jonathan Drennan, Kate Irving, Anne Byrne, Padraig MacNeela and Marian Hanrahan

78 The deconstructing angel: nursing, reflection and evidence-based practice
Gary Rolfe

87 Men, culture and hegemonic masculinity: understanding the experience of prostate cancer
David Wall and Linda Kristjanson

98 The language of 'experience' in nursing research
David Allen and Kristin Cloyes

106 Phenomenology as rhetoric
John Paley

117 Nursing practice as bricoleur activity: a concept explored
Mary Gobbi

126 Mediating the meaning of evidence through epistemological diversity
Denise Tarlier

135 In the public interest: autonomy and resistance to methods of standardising nurses' advice and practices from a health call centre in Perth, Western Australia
Ann-Claire Larsen

144 Taking account of local culture: limits to the development of a professional ethos
Suzanne E. Goopy

INVITED COMMENTARY

155 A feminist utilitarian perspective on euthanasia: from Nancy Crick to Terri Schiavo
Gail Tulloch

Issue 3, September 2005

EDITORIAL

161 Clinical academic careers for nurses: time for a renewed debate
Tony Butterworth

FEATURE ARTICLES

162 Nurse migration from Zimbabwe: analysis of recent trends and impacts
Abel Chikanda

175 Gender and embodiment in nursing: the role of the female chaperone in the infertility clinic
Helen T. Allan

184 Risk bodies: rehabilitation of sports patients in the physiotherapy clinic
Lone Friis Thing

192 Perceived threat in compliance and adherence research
Roger Carpenter

200 Beyond dichotomies of health and illness: life after breast cancer
Roanne Thomas-MacLean

210 The family theory–practice gap: a matter of clarity?
Cheryl A. Segaric and Wendy A. Hall

219 Reproducing normative and marginalized masculinities: Adolescent male popularity and the outcast
Debby A. Phillips

231 The impact of the re-engineered world of health-care in Canada on nursing and patient outcomes
Valerie Shannon and Susan French

Issue 4, December 2005

EDITORIAL

241 Nursing and history
Patricia D'Antonio

FEATURE ARTICLES

243 Gender and professional identity in psychiatric nursing practice in Alberta, Canada, 1930–75
Geertje Boschma, Olive Yonge and Lorraine Mychajlunow

256 Welfare state and women's work: the professional projects of nurses and occupational therapists in Sweden
Lars Evertsson and Rafael Lindqvist

269 Prelude to specialization: US cancer nursing, 1920–50
Brigid Lusk

278 Nursing and care for the aged in Victoria: 1950s to 1970s
Cecily Hunter

287 The 'Manchester scheme': a study of the Diploma in Community Nursing, the first pre-registration nursing programme in a British university
Christine Hallett

295 Influences on the early training of nurses in Denmark
Michael Nielsen

COMMENTARY

303 'Interminable hell': Hiroshima's nurses remember the atomic bomb
Ryoko Ohara

SPECIAL ARTICLES

306 Virtual reality or real virtuality: the space of flows and nursing practice
Lynne Barnes and Trudy Rudge

316 Geography and nursing: convergence in cyberspace?
Gavin J. Andrews and Rob Kitchin

325 BOOK REVIEWS

329 LIST OF REVIEWERS